Comparing the Rev.2 of Chapter 5 on Transforming Global Governance to the Zero Draft and Rev.1

ABOUT: The co-facilitators of the Summit of the Future (SOTF), following informal consultations and written inputs from MS and stakeholders in December 2023, published the zero-draft of the Pact for the Future on 26 January 2024. The 5-chapter zero-draft was meant to serve as a starting point for formal intergovernmental negotiations leading up to the SOTF in September 2024.

A chapter-by-chapter First Reading was organized in early February following which a 242-page compilation text around the skeleton of the zero draft was circulated among Member States (MS). A paragraph-by-paragraph Second Reading was organised intermittently from late February until early April following which a 224-page revised compilation text was circulated among MS on 3 April 2024 (refer here for the ICH bulletin on First and Second Readings). The Rev. 1 of the Pact for the Future was released on 14 May 2024 following closed informal consultation at Ambassador level and a virtual consultation with MGoS and civil society in April and the UN Civil Society Conference in Nairobi in May. The Rev. 1, as outlined by the co-facilitators in their letter dated 4 April, was meant to be a concise, action-oriented and high-level political document as opposed to the zero-draft, which was meant to serve as a starting point for formal negotiations.

This bulletin compares the Rev.2 of Chapter 5 on Transforming Global Governance to the zero-draft and Rev.1 while also referring to the compilation text for detailed insights as needed.

METHODOLOGY: This ICH bulletin has compared the Rev. 2 of the Pact for the Future with the Rev. 1 and zero-draft. The content from the zero-draft (not in its entirety and not in order) and Rev. 1 are included in columns 1 and 2, respectively, and the content from the Rev. 2 is included in column 3 in the comparison table below. The column 4 on “Observations” was written by the Lead Author based on the compilation text (as of 3 April 2024) and understanding gained by tracking the SOTF negotiations. The “Observations” column contain discussion on both the changes between the zero-draft & Rev. 1 and the Rev. 1 & Rev. 2. Direct quotes from the text drafts have been put in quotation marks and italicised.
